The participant confirms, with his signature, that he/she agrees to the requirements set by the operator to take part in the „Flying Fox XXL“ Action Experiences and that he/she has no physical impediment or ill health which should be taken into account before taking part. It is then assumed that he/she is physically and psychologically fit, as this experience can be quite a physical and psychological strain.

The participant acknowledges that a flight with the Flying Fox XXL can be associated with substantial risks, inevitable in this type of sport. Possible injury, also serious, cannot be ruled out. Therefore the flight is entirely at the participant's own risk.

People with the following health disabilities may not participate: high blood pressure, heart and circulatory problems, damaged loco motor system, epilepsy, eye operations, neurological problems, chronic auditory illness resulting in balance difficulties and alcohol and drug abuse. Pregnant women may also not participate.

A participant must be at least 10 years old and weigh between 35kg and 110kg (depending on weather conditions the minimum and maximum weight may vary!). Participants under 18 years of age must have signed consent from an authorised guardian who must also be present. The authorised guardian and the under-age participant must sign this stipulated agreement.

The participant further confirms, with his signature, to exactly follow the instructions of the operator and his staff – especially concerning organisation and safety. The operator has the right to refuse a participant's flight if he/she does not do so.

The operator is only liable for the responsible execution of the flight experience itself (from taking the person onto the ramp until his/her landing on the ground). Liability claims against the operator are impossible, except for damage caused by intent or gross negligence on the part of the operator. This indemnification also covers the operator's employees and vicarious agents. Participation in the adventure is purely at the participant's own risk. The operator must be told immediately of any accident or injury to a participant.

Flying Fox XXL is an outdoor experience. No liability is accepted for clothes worn during the flight which becomes damaged or dirty, or for personal belongings deposited during the flight. The participant must empty everything out of his/her pockets (handy, purse, coins etc.) and take off glasses, loose necklaces, bracelets etc. The operator accepts no liability for lost property during the adventure. Participation with loosely hanging clothes (scarf etc) or long hair, which is not tied back, is forbidden.
